

Package Insurance Waiver and Release of Liability

I, the undersigned customer, understand that The UPS Store 6886 has offered me the option to purchase declared value coverage (commonly referred to as “insurance”) for the shipment of my package(s). I am aware that by declining to purchase this coverage, The UPS Store 6886 and its employees, owners, affiliates, and agents will not be responsible or liable for any loss, damage, theft, or delay that may occur during the handling, transit, or delivery of my shipment by UPS or any third-party carrier.

By signing this waiver, I acknowledge and agree to the following:

Insurance Declined: I have voluntarily chosen not to purchase declared value coverage for my shipment.

Assumption of Risk: I accept full responsibility for any loss or damage to the package(s) being shipped, regardless of the cause or carrier involved.

Release of Liability: I hereby release and hold harmless The UPS Store 6886, its owners, agents, and employees from any and all claims, demands, losses, or damages relating to the shipment, including but not limited to physical damage, loss, delivery, theft, or delay.

Carrier Responsibility: I understand that any liability or claims for damage must be addressed directly with the carrier (e.g., UPS) in accordance with their standard terms and conditions, which may include limited liability coverage (e.g., up to $100 for UPS Ground shipments).

No Guarantees: I acknowledge that The UPS Store 6886 makes no guarantees regarding the condition, timeliness, or delivery of the package.

Customer Acknowledgment: By signing below, I confirm that I have read, understood, and agree to the terms of this waiver.
